Exploring Dr. Lisa Bourque & Associates in Hamilton, Ontario

If you are considering mental health services in Hamilton, Ontario, Dr. Lisa Bourque & Associates may be on your radar. Here's what you need to know about their offerings and the experience potential clients have had.

Appointments Recommended

When seeking mental health support, scheduling an appointment is crucial. While many clients find Dr. Bourque's practice accommodating, it's important to be aware that some have experienced challenges with appointment management. Reports indicate that certain clients have struggled with rescheduling after cancellations, underscoring the importance of timely communication and follow-through in this field.

Accessibility Matters

Dr. Lisa Bourque & Associates prioritizes accessibility for all clients. The facility includes a wheelchair-accessible car park, ensuring that those with mobility challenges can easily access services. This is critical in promoting inclusivity within mental health care.

Amenities for Comfort

Having a welcoming atmosphere contributes significantly to the therapeutic experience. The office provides various amenities designed to create a comfortable environment for clients. However, it is essential to check specific offerings, such as waiting areas and facilities, to ensure they meet your needs.

Planning Your Visit

If you decide to visit Dr. Bourque's office, planning ahead can improve your experience. As mentioned, it's advisable to confirm your appointment and clarify any doubts regarding accessibility or available amenities. This proactive approach can help mitigate any potential miscommunication regarding your visit.

The Importance of Feedback

A review left by a former client highlights a significant concern: "I had one session with her, booked a second session which she cancelled..." This feedback indicates a gap in professionalism that potential clients should consider. Client experiences vary widely, and while some may leave satisfied, others have faced challenges that could influence their decision to seek services here. In conclusion, while Dr. Lisa Bourque & Associates offers essential services for mental health in Hamilton, prospective clients should weigh their options carefully and remain mindful of both positive attributes and areas needing improvement.
